

March 16, 2020 • Firm News • www.atllp.com

A MESSAGE FROM ARMSTRONG TEASDALE

To our valued clients, business partners and friends:

These are extraordinary times. Each day brings new challenges which, only weeks ago, few could have foreseen, and for which even fewer were well prepared. Disruption and uncertainty have become commonplace, and many believe a return to normalcy is increasingly unlikely in the near term.

At Armstrong Teasdale, we have overcome challenges at the side of our clients for more than a century — a century that has stood witness to political crisis, natural disaster, numerous wars, untold tragedy and, yes, global pandemic. Always we have seen it through together, and always we have maintained our bond of mutual trust, collaboration and partnership to emerge stronger and better than before.

This will be no different. We have ensured the safety and well-being of our team, and we remain open for business, poised to guide you through the troubling days ahead and the challenges that are yet to unfold. Our team is ready to serve, whether from the office or working remotely. Our responsiveness and service will be seamless, and your interests will always be protected. Our long-held standards of excellent client service will not diminish, and our commitment to you and your business will never waver.

As we move forward, the health and safety of our employees, clients, visitors and the communities in which we live and work are, and will continue to be, our highest priority. Our decisions and actions during this rapidly evolving situation will continue to be driven by the well-being of those we employ and those we serve.

We are well positioned to face, together with you, the challenges ahead, and we stand ready to support you and your business as always — with the professionalism and excellence you have come to expect from the Armstrong Teasdale team.

Thank you,

David Braswell

Armstrong
Teasdale

Managing Partner