

ABIGAIL GRACE

PARALEGAL

St. Louis, MO

314.621.5070

ajgrace@atllp.com

Abigail Grace is a paralegal in Armstrong Teasdale's Litigation practice group. With a focus on toxic tort matters involving asbestos litigation, she is responsible for analyzing and reviewing all new asbestos complaints; maintaining and updating a database with client status, trial dates and other critical information; reviewing dockets for newly filed documents; and assisting attorneys in numerous projects and with preparing and finalizing discovery, among other duties. Abigail is also responsible for training new staff within the Asbestos Litigation practice area.

Abigail is proficient in numerous research and case management tools including Westlaw and LexisNexis.

BACKGROUND

Before joining Armstrong Teasdale, Abigail was an administrative assistant at a St. Louis area investment group.

EDUCATION

- St. Louis Community College (A.A.S., 2018)
 - Paralegal Studies

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Asbestos Litigation