

ABIGAIL TWENTER JOINS ARMSTRONG TEASDALE IN ST. LOUIS

Armstrong Teasdale, a law firm with offices across the United States, proudly announces the addition of Abigail Twenter to its Litigation practice group in St. Louis.

Twenter has experience working on cases at all stages of litigation, including trial preparation, motions practice and civil, criminal and administrative appeals.

Prior to joining the firm, Twenter served as a law clerk to Judge E. Richard Webber of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri and to Judge Laura Denvir Stith of the Supreme Court of Missouri. During law school, Twenter was selected as an Equal Justice America Fellow for Legal Services of Eastern Missouri, where she counseled clients on immigration matters in both Spanish and English. She also worked as a law clerk for a firm in Champaign, Illinois.

She earned her J.D., magna cum laude with a pro bono notation, from the University of Illinois College of Law. Twenter earned her B.A. in political science, magna cum laude, from Truman State University. She is admitted to practice law in Missouri and before the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri.

PEOPLE

Abigail Twenter

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Litigation