

AIMEN SALEM

ASSOCIATE

St. Louis, MO

314.342.8067

asalem@atllp.com

Aimen Salem is a member of Armstrong Teasdale's Corporate Services practice group. With a focus on tax law, he advises clients on the tax implications and opportunities relating to a variety of strategic transactions.

BACKGROUND

Aimen was a law clerk at Armstrong Teasdale prior to joining the firm full time. He was also previously a summer associate at the firm. During law school, he was a teaching assistant for Legal Analysis, Research and Communication and worked at the transactional law clinic at SLU.

EDUCATION

- Saint Louis University School of Law (J.D., 2025)
 - Entrepreneurship & Community Development Transactional Clinic
 - Legal Analysis, Research, and Communication Teaching Assistant
 - Academic Excellence Award
 - Tax Law Association, Vice President
 - Middle East North African Law Student Association, Vice President
 - Saint Louis University Law Journal, Vol. 69, Editor
- University of Illinois (B.S., 2021)
 - Advertising
 - Business Minor
 - American Marketing Association
 - American Advertising Federation, Account Manager

CHARITABLE AND CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

- Entrepreneurship & Community Development Transactional Clinic

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Corporate

Mergers and Acquisitions

Tax

Trusts, Estates and Private
Wealth Management

ADMISSIONS

Missouri