Amy Ryan is a partner in the firm's Financial and Real Estate Services practice group with more than 25 years of experience handling real estate litigation and creditors' rights matters.

Amy has worked on several major federal litigation cases involving complex title insurance coverage as well as a multimillion-dollar action for fraud and replevin of farm equipment and crops. Her practice often involves real estate, consumer lending, creditors' rights and business law. She has handled matters in every Bankruptcy Court in Missouri and Illinois throughout her career prosecuting dischargeability and lien priority actions and defending against preference and lien avoidance complaints. Amy also handles real estate zoning and permitting for several regional companies and represents commercial borrowers in Illinois and Missouri closings.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Amy was a shareholder and managing partner for the St. Louis office of another Missouri law firm.
