

ANN BALESTRIERI

DOCKET ADMINISTRATOR

Philadelphia, PA

267.780.2078

abalestrieri@atllp.com

Ann Balestrieri is a docket administrator in the Intellectual Property practice group. She manages all aspects of patent docketing, including maintenance and payment of U.S. maintenance fees and foreign annuities. She works with lawyers to ensure due dates are consistently met and provides essential reports on patents and trademarks.

With attention to detail, Ann attends to client and other correspondence regarding a range of matters, including domestic and foreign patents.

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Intellectual Property

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Ann served as an intellectual property docketing specialist and supervisor at several Pennsylvania law firms. She also previously served as an executive legal assistant.

EDUCATION

- Gwynedd Mercy College (1981)
 - Business Management
- Maxwell Institute (1981)
 - Certificate in Basic Computer Programming