

ANTHONY G. DI MARIA

OF COUNSEL

New York, NY

212.209.4361

adimaria@atllp.com

Anthony G. Di Maria is an accomplished trusts and estates attorney with an extensive background in tax planning and preparation, as well as financial planning.

Anthony is proficient in preparing and administering sophisticated estate plans and trusts. He serves clients by managing all aspects of their estates, including preparation of all federal and state estate and fiduciary income tax filings and all fiduciary accountings.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Anthony served as senior attorney at a boutique real estate, corporate law, and trusts and estates law firm in White Plains, New York, where he led the trusts and estates department. He also served as an associate attorney at several New York and Connecticut firms focused on trusts and estates.

EDUCATION

- Boston University (LL.M., 1999)
 - Taxation
- New York Law School (J.D., 1998)
- Fairfield University (B.A., magna cum laude, 1995)
 - Phi Beta Kappa

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- New York State Bar Association (Tax, Trusts and Estates, and Elder Law sections)
- Connecticut Bar Association (Tax, Trusts and Estates, and Elder Law sections)

CHARITABLE AND CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

- Estate Planning Council of Putnam County (2009-present)
- Tompkins Mahopac Bank Business Development Board (2012-present)
- Carmel, N.Y., Rotary International Club (2005-2010)

EXPERIENCE

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Tax

Trusts and Estates

ADMISSIONS

Connecticut

New York

Estate Tax Refund Received after New York State Estate Tax Audit

Successfully represented Executrix of Estate in securing a full refund of approximately $600,000.00 in New York State Estate Tax paid after such tax was imposed as a result of a desk audit.

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

October 20, 2022

Tips for Proactive Estate Planning

July 26, 2022

IRS Simplifies Method for Obtaining an Extension of Time to Make a Portability Election for Federal Estate Tax Purposes