

ARMSTRONG TEASDALE LAWYERS KING, JOHNSON, YOUSEY SELECTED FOR 2025 LEADERSHIP COUNCIL ON LEGAL DIVERSITY PROGRAMS

Armstrong Teasdale is proud to announce that Partner Hui-Shan Sandra King, Pharm.D., has been named a Fellow of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) for 2025. In addition, Associates Sydney Johnson and Onalee R. Yousey have been named to LCLD's Pathfinder program.

The LCLD Fellows Program offers high-potential, mid-career attorneys from diverse backgrounds at LCLD Member organizations the opportunity to develop leadership skills and build meaningful relationships within the legal profession. The seven-month Pathfinders program provides high-potential, early-career attorneys from diverse backgrounds with the opportunity to learn from top leaders in the legal profession while gaining foundational leadership skills and relationship-building resources.

"LCLD provides a tremendous opportunity for our lawyers to better understand our clients and drive creative solutions and meaningful business outcomes," said Armstrong Teasdale Chief Diversity Officer Kenneth Sharperson. "Our firm remains steadfast in our partnership with LCLD, and we eagerly anticipate Sandra, Sydney, and Onalee making significant contributions and advancing through their participation in the Fellow and Pathfinder programs."

Through this initiative, Armstrong Teasdale continues to champion diversity, equity, and inclusion in the legal industry. By investing in the professional development of its attorneys, the firm aims to strengthen its ability to deliver innovative legal solutions and exceptional client service.

King (Philadelphia) is a member of the firm's Intellectual Property practice group. A licensed pharmacist, she applies her deep scientific and medical knowledge in counseling clients at the intersection of health care technology and law. She focuses her practice on patent preparation and prosecution in the health care and life sciences.

Johnson (St. Louis) is a trial attorney in the firm's Intellectual Property practice

PEOPLE

Hui-Shan Sandra King, Pharm.D.

Sydney Johnson

Onalee R. Yousey

group, focusing on complex patent, trademark and copyright disputes. She represents a wide array of clients, including those involved in the telecommunications, biometrics, defense technologies and agricultural sciences industries.

Yousey (St. Louis) is a member of the firm's Litigation practice group, where she represents clients in various civil litigation matters and counsels clients on a range of labor and employment issues. She assists in developing policies and procedures, advising on noncompete and trade secret matters, conducting workplace investigations, and other issues.

Armstrong Teasdale has long been involved in LCLD and other initiatives focused on advancing diversity in the legal profession, and has an active LCLD alumni network. In addition, the firm has been honored with LCLD's Compass and Top Performer Awards multiple times for participation in LCLD programs designed to build a more open and diverse legal profession. Learn more about these and other initiatives at atllp.com/inclusion.