

December 8, 2021 • Firm News • www.atllp.com

ARMSTRONG TEASDALE'S NEW YORK CITY OFFICE MOVES TO TIMES SQUARE

In 2019, Armstrong Teasdale further bolstered its presence on the East Coast with the opening of a New York City office and the addition of 16 attorneys. Today, the market is home to more than 40 attorneys and staff professionals combined. As such, we are pleased to announce that we have moved into new office space at 7 Times Square to accommodate our growing team.

Times Square Tower is a 48-story office tower in Midtown Manhattan with many prominent tenants. The building is close to key restaurants and entertainment, as well as public transit and beloved Bryant Park. The new space will afford room for growth as we continue to identify high-caliber talent and strategically grow our position in the region.

Our attorneys in New York City work across a variety of disciplines including white-collar criminal defense, bankruptcy and financial restructuring, cooperative and condominium law, commercial real estate, intellectual property, corporate law, and other regulatory and compliance matters.

In the past three years, Armstrong Teasdale has opened offices in eight new markets across the country, New York City included. The firm's new address is 7 Times Square, 44th Floor, New York, NY 10036.