

BRANDI VOGT

PARALEGAL

St. Louis, MO

314.621.5070

bvogt@armstrongteasdale.com

Brandi Vogt is a paralegal in the firm's Financial and Real Estate Services practice group. With administrative and legal experience, she provides support to the firm's banking, bankruptcy and real estate attorneys.

Brandi manages all aspects of case review and case management; prepares garnishment/execution orders; provides support for rent and possession actions; maintains docket hearings and deadlines; prepares and handles court filings; conducts searches and drafts summary charts of UCC, tax liens and judgments; and assists in managing bankruptcy cases. She also provides support for tax registrations and setting up new business entities. Brandi has a track record of providing accurate, timely and beneficial problem-solving research for a wide range of subject matters.

EDUCATION

- Sanford-Brown College (A.A.S., 2005)
 - Paralegal Studies

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Brandi was a paralegal at a St. Louis area firm where she assisted with client communication and billing, correspondence and pleadings, records requests, deposition scheduling, litigation and e-filing. Before that, she was a legal secretary and paralegal at other area firms.