

CATHERINE HILL

LEGAL PROJECT MANAGER

Philadelphia, PA

267.780.2079

chill@atllp.com

A legal project manager in the Intellectual Property practice group, Catherine Hill assists with the preparation and filing of all types of U.S. patent applications and responses, including amendments, formality notifications, notices of appeal, appeal briefs, payments of issue fees and payments of maintenance fees. She also trains and mentors others in the practice group.

She also handles preparation and filing of information disclosure statements, all types of petitions, foreign patent applications and national phase applications worldwide.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Catherine was a patent prosecution senior paralegal, mentor and supervisor at several Pennsylvania law firms.

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Intellectual Property