CORPORATE ASSOCIATE LYNSEY COFFEY JOINS ARMSTRONG TEASDALE

National law firm Armstrong Teasdale announces the addition of Associate Lynsey Coffey to the Corporate Services practice group. She focuses her practice on technology-related and complex commercial transactions, advising clients on agreements that support critical business operations.

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Coffey served in a senior contracting role for a multi-hospital health system, where she partnered closely with executive leadership and operational stakeholders to lead enterprise-wide vendor contracting initiatives. In that role, she supported technology, clinical, and administrative functions across the organization, negotiating and managing agreements for large-scale implementations and ongoing vendor relationships.

Coffey's experience includes SaaS agreements, software licensing arrangements, enterprise IT contracts, cloud-based solutions, and other commercial contracts supporting regulated operational environments. She regularly advises clients on commercial agreements involving data privacy, information security, business associate provisions, and related regulatory compliance considerations.
