Genevieve Conroy is a senior litigation specialist with experience providing support in litigation, business and real estate-related matters.

Her background includes drafting complaints, motions and other legal documents, and she is skilled at managing a docket from initial complaint filing through trial or settlement. Genevieve also assists at trial by managing exhibits, preparing trial notebooks and expert binders, and communicating with clients, experts and fact witnesses. Her strong knowledge of legal procedures is combined with research experience and software skills including the Microsoft Office suite, QuickBooks, LexisNexis and Amicus Attorney.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining the firm, Genevieve was a legal assistant at a mid-Atlantic law firm. Before that, she was a paralegal at a personal injury firm.
