

INGRAM'S RECOGNIZES KARRIE CLINKINBEARD AS '2019 RAINMAKER'

Karrie Clinkinbeard, partner and office managing attorney for Armstrong Teasdale's Kansas City office, has been selected by Ingram's magazine as one of its 2019 Rainmakers. The awards highlight the most influential and accomplished women lawyers in the Greater Kansas City region.

A member of Armstrong Teasdale's Litigation practice group for over 20 years, Clinkinbeard focuses on fire, explosion and electrocution litigation, toxic torts and catastrophic incidents and product liability, and has substantial trial experience. She was also recently named a 2020 Local Litigation Star by Benchmark Litigation.

Clinkinbeard is dedicated to fostering growth in Kansas City and beyond, and based on her incredible depth of knowledge, she is retained by global companies. Clinkinbeard is also a member of the firm's Executive Committee – one of three women serving in that capacity – where she works alongside firm leaders on strategic direction and overall management of the partnership. Clinkinbeard is also a member of the firm's Compensation Committee.

Honorees were recognized at an awards luncheon Nov. 18 at The Grand Hall at Power & Light. A profile of Clinkinbeard also appears in the magazine's November issue.
