Janelle Jenkins is a paralegal in the Corporate Services practice group. She has in-depth experience supporting attorneys and firm clients in the marijuana and hemp law industries, and has a significant wealth of knowledge regarding the industry's regulatory compliance requirements. As such, Janelle works closely with state officials in support of our attorneys and clients.

Her past experience as a regional manager for a multinational provider of flexible workspace solutions makes her a strong asset on transactional and regulatory compliance matters.

Janelle is skilled in Microsoft applications, Adobe DC and QuickBooks. She is also a notary public.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Janelle worked at another Las Vegas area law firm. Before that, she was a regional manager for a multinational provider of business and coworking spaces.
