Jeanette Sinclair is an associate in the Intellectual Property practice group. She counsels clients on all aspects of trademark and copyright protection, including the development and management of portfolios. Her practice includes domestic and foreign trademark portfolio management from searching, filing and clearance to maintenance, and policing and enforcement of trademark registrations.

Jeanette brings a demonstrated history of working in the M&A services industry. As an in-house lawyer, she managed more than two dozen deals at a time, including negotiating merger agreements, stock purchase agreements, escrow agreements and payment agreements. She also advised clients on structuring key provisions regarding purchase price adjustments, escrow and payments provisions.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Jeanette served as an associate at an intellectual property law firm in Denver. Before that, she was an in-house attorney at an M&A professional services company. She also spent time as a student attorney at the University of Colorado's Entrepreneurial Law Clinic and as a legal intern in the University of Colorado's Technology Transfer Office, the Denver City Attorney's Office, the Office of the Colorado Secretary of State, the Denver Museum of Nature and Science and at an online retail company.
