Jennifer Berger is an associate in the firm's Litigation practice group.

She has extensive experience researching and analyzing issues in white-collar criminal defense, employment and antitrust law. During law school, she interned for the Hon. Mark A. Kearney and the Hon. Timothy J. Savage of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Experienced in pretrial matters, Jennifer is skilled at drafting motions for federal court, as well as drafting memoranda.

BACKGROUND

Before joining Armstrong Teasdale, Jennifer completed a year-long Federal Judicial Clerkship Honors Clinical with the Honorable Timothy J. Savage of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Prior to that, she held a summer associate role with a mid-Atlantic law firm, where she conducted research, gathered evidence and analyzed case and statutory law related to the Sherman Act, ERISA, the Anti-Kickback Act and the False Claims Act.

During law school, Jennifer held externships with the Women's Law Project in Philadelphia and for the Hon. Mark A. Kearney in U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. She also served as a research assistant to Professor Craig Green, and received the law school's Lena L. Hale Award for graduates chosen by the faculty for outstanding extracurricular contributions.
