

JOHN (JACK) C. BUTZ

ASSOCIATE

Chicago, IL

312.419.5666

jbutz@atllp.com

Jack Butz is a litigator with substantial experience representing clients in complex commercial transactions; white-collar investigations; intellectual property disputes, including trade secrets and breach of contract claims; and consumer class actions.

He is skilled at motion drafting, negotiations and internal investigations.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Jack was a litigation associate in the New York City office of a British multinational law firm. Before that, he was a legal intern on the Homicide Task Force in the Cook County Public Defender's Office in Chicago.

EDUCATION

- Northwestern University School of Law (J.D., 2020)
 - Journal of Technology and Intellectual Property, Perspectives Editor
- University of Michigan (B.A., 2013)
 - English

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Antitrust and Trade Practices

Class Action Litigation

Complex Commercial Litigation

Copyright

Data Innovation, Security and Privacy

Intellectual Property Litigation

Trademark

White-Collar Criminal Defense and Government Investigations

ADMISSIONS

Illinois

New York

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

March 2020

Data Security in a Global Economy

Northwestern Journal of Technology and Intellectual Property