Josh Seib is a paralegal in the Litigation practice group, where he supports lawyers in all stages of litigation, from pleadings and discovery to trial.

He prepares materials for use at depositions and trial, including witness files, exhibit books, exhibit lists, demonstrative exhibits, and also manages and presents those material during trial. He conducts background research on expert witnesses, and error-checks case citations and facts in legal briefs prior to filing.

In addition, Josh is skilled with handling document discovery, including preparation of new productions, drafting privilege logs, loading productions into review software, searching databases, and collating these search results.

Josh is well-versed in document management software such as Concordance, Relativity and Catalyst, and with resources Westlaw and Pacer.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Josh spent 15 years as a paralegal at Novack and Macey, which combined with Armstrong Teasdale in 2023.
