

KEITH GRISSOM NAMED TO MISSOURI LAWYERS WEEKLY 2025 TAX AND ESTATES POWER LIST

Missouri Lawyers Weekly has named Armstrong Teasdale Partner Keith K. Grissom to its 2025 Power List for Tax & Estate Planning Attorneys. He is among 25 attorneys recognized from across the state for being the foremost practitioners in the tax law and estate planning space, as determined by interviews with attorneys statewide, reviews of verdicts and settlements, and archival research.

Grissom counsels both businesses and individuals on tax matters including addressing income, estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer tax issues related to estate planning and trust administration. He frequently works with business owners as well as with multi-generational families on preserving their wealth and the transition of businesses to the next generation. In addition to probate and trust administration, he advises clients on the formation and funding of private foundations and other tax-exempt entities. Grissom also provides counsel regarding international planning.
