

LITIGATION ASSOCIATE ELIZABETH RANDALL JOINS ARMSTRONG TEASDALE IN ST. LOUIS

National law firm Armstrong Teasdale announces the addition of Associate Elizabeth Randall to the firm's Litigation practice group. Based in the firm's St. Louis office, she advises clients on a range of both contentious and non-contentious matters.

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Randall served as law clerk for the Hon. Renee D. Hardin-Tammons of the Missouri Court of Appeals for the Eastern District. During law school, she served as a student attorney with the Washington University School of Law Appellate Clinic, where she represented clients on appeal in the Sixth and Eighth Circuits, and obtained reversal of an unfavorable summary judgment ruling in the Eighth Circuit. Randall is experienced at conducting complex civil and criminal law research, drafting briefs, motions, and memoranda, and preparing for litigation at all stages of representation.

PEOPLE

Elizabeth Randall