Nicholas Krone is an associate in the Litigation practice group. He is experienced in conducting extensive legal research and analysis, as well as drafting memoranda on a variety of complex substantive and procedural matters. His previous experience includes both civil and criminal matters in federal court.

BACKGROUND

Nicholas was a summer associate at Armstrong Teasdale before joining the firm full time. He also previously served as a legal extern in the U.S. Attorney's Office in St. Louis and at the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. He also served as a judicial intern for the Hon. Sara Darrow, chief judge of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of Illinois. Prior to attending law school, Nicholas worked for a global industrial equipment manufacturer where he managed key accounts, including several of the world's largest corporations in the agribusiness and food and beverage spaces.
