

RUTH ANN SNOOK

PARALEGAL

Chicago, IL
312.516.5619
rsnook@atllp.com

Ruth Ann Snook is a litigation paralegal who primarily assists lawyers in preparing for depositions, mediations, hearings and trials.

She compiles, organizes and manages exhibits for depositions and trials.

Ruth Ann also maintains deposition databases and assists firm lawyers by analyzing search results to drive their arguments. She has experience working with document management software including Summation, Concordance, TextMap and CaseNote, and also uses Westlaw and Pacer regularly.

BACKGROUND

Ruth Ann joined Armstrong Teasdale from Novack and Macey in 2023. Prior to that, she was a legal assistant and case assistant at two other Chicago firms.

EDUCATION

- University of Illinois at Chicago (M.P.A., 1993)
- Loyola University (B.A., 1989)
 - Political Science
 - Minor in History

CHARITABLE AND CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

- St. Ignatius College Prep Women's Society Board

ACCOLADES

- St. Ignatius College Prep Women's Society Golden Rose Award (2021)