

SAVANNAH FISHER

LAW CLERK—PENDING ADMISSION

St. Louis, MO

314.259.4712

sfisher@atllp.com

Savannah Fisher is a member of Armstrong Teasdale's Litigation practice group. During law school, she gained experience through the Midwest Innocence Project's Wrongful Conviction Clinic at Washington University, where she worked on cases for clients seeking to overturn their convictions. In addition, Savannah brings her background in criminology as an investigator in public defenders' offices in California and Colorado, where she investigated hundreds of felony, misdemeanor, and juvenile cases.

Licensed as shown under Admissions. Not currently licensed in Missouri.*

BACKGROUND

Savannah was a summer associate at Armstrong Teasdale prior to joining the firm full time.

EDUCATION

- Washington University School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2026)
 - Washington University Law Review (Notes Editor; Staff Editor)
 - Technology and Privacy Law Society (President; Treasurer)
 - Equal Justice Works Award Recipient
 - Public Interest Law Certificate
 - Washington University Scholar in Law Recipient
- University of Denver (B.A., cum laude, 2017)
 - Major in Criminology
 - Minor in Psychology
 - Daniels Fund Scholarship Recipient

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis
- Women Lawyers' Association of Greater St. Louis

CHARITABLE AND CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

- Midwest Innocence Project

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Complex Commercial
Litigation

Data Innovation, Security and Privacy

Governance and Compliance

Medical Malpractice

White-Collar Criminal Defense and Government Investigations

Consumer Products and Services

Health Care and Life Sciences

Technology

ADMISSIONS

Pending Admission