

SCOTT NADING

ASSOCIATE

Kansas City, MO

816.472.3145

snading@atllp.com

Scott Nading is an associate in the firm's Litigation practice group, where he represents clients in a variety of disputes. He has experience drafting, reviewing and editing opinions and memoranda on a variety of complex civil matters, and is skilled at conducting legal research and drafting dispositive motions on cases involving product liability, employment and labor, and complex commercial litigation, among other issues.

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Scott was an associate at a Kansas City-area law firm where he managed the motion practice for catastrophic injury litigation cases. He was also previously a law clerk for the Hon. John W. Broomes in the U.S. District Court for the District of Kansas and served as a law clerk on multiple federal trials.

EDUCATION

- University of Arkansas School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2020)
 - Arkansas Law Review, Staff Editor
 - M & J Herman Scholar
 - Moot Court
 - Business Law Society, President
 - Native American Law Students Association (Cherokee Nation)
- University of Oklahoma (B.A., 2017)
 - Political Science

EXPERIENCE

Summary Judgment for Insurer in Garnishment Action

Obtained summary judgment on behalf of an insurer in a garnishment action seeking to collect on a $5,150,000 arbitration award against the insured. We demonstrated that the insurer correctly denied a defense and indemnity to the insured pursuant to a household resident exclusion of a homeowners insurance policy.

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Commercial

Complex Commercial

Litigation

Employment and Labor

Insurance Coverage Litigation

Litigation

ADMISSIONS

Missouri

Kansas