

SIX ARMSTRONG TEASDALE ATTORNEYS RECOGNIZED IN 2026 IP STARS

Managing IP has recognized six Armstrong Teasdale attorneys among its 2026 IP Stars. The rankings serve as a resource for companies and individuals looking for experienced legal practitioners for contentious and non-contentious IP advice.

Partners Patrick Brennan, Richard Brophy, Erin Florek, Christopher Goff, and Patrick Rasche were recognized as Patent Stars, and Partner Donna Schmitt was named a Trademark Star.

In addition, the firm was ranked as Highly Recommended in Missouri for intellectual property, one of only four firms in the state to receive that recognition.

Lawyers in the firm's IP practice represent some of the world's largest companies and guide clients in all aspects of the acquisition, licensing, application, protection and enforcement of their IP rights, including patents and trademarks. This includes supporting clients such as inventors, manufacturers, universities, private equity firms, international sporting bodies/organizations, musicians, firms listed on major stock exchanges around the globe, major multinationals involved in complex transactions, and others with a focus on driving technological advances.

Managing IP has published its legal guides since 1994 and covers a variety of practice areas in more than 80 jurisdictions. For more information, visit ipstars.com.
